When Mr. Anderson was next conscious, he found himself lying on the floor. He opened his eyes, and perceived that all was dark. He istened, but not a sound could be heard. In attempting to rise, he found himself so weak, that he could not at first support his own weight; he was seized at the same time with a faintness and deadly sickness. In placing his hand to his head, through which shot a sudden pam, it came in contact with a cold, slimy mass, the very touch of which made his flesh creep. It might be, for aught he knew, that half of his head had

As he raised her up quickly, he perceived that there head and face, and that she was very pale and

After the blood had been washed from his head, the mass of matted and tangled hair smoothly parted from the wound which the robber's bludgeon had made, and the contusion ascertained not to be so serious as to let out his brains, Mr Anderson with rather more sense than he had displayed previous to the alight excitement of his combative organ by the application of a little "club-oil," took up his heavy cane, and holding it in a guarding ton's heavy stick. attitude, proceeded to ascertain whether his house was still infeated by burglars. Certain it is, that if any such individuals had been found upon the premises, and had not fied precipitately, the law that had ruled in the conscience of Mr. Anderson, the law of non-resistance, would most certainly have been broken.

On the next day, the fact that he had been assailed by burglars, beaten and robbed of nearly a thousand dollars in money and valuable articles, became noised abroad.

Mr. Walton was among the first to call upon proved Stoves now in use, and he flatters himself Mr. Anderson to sympathize with him in his loss proved Stoves now in use, and he matters number and to congratulate him upon having escaped that he can do up the little things in the Stove line and to congratulate him upon having escaped with, personally, only a broken head. "Oh, no-no-no! I can see no such thing." "Why not? Is he any better than your housebreakers? They only took by force what he did by fraud-your property. Why then make a difference between them. Both are dangerous to the good order and well being of society.

Mr. Anderson made his advertisement offering a liberal reward for the arrest of the housebreakers and recovery of his money. But it was all in vain. No trace of either his property or the men could be found. It was a few months only from the period of the robbery, when the excitement in regard to it had nearly died away in the interest that other and more recent occurrences had naturally awakened, that Mr. Walton found himself placed in circumstances very similar to those that had presented themselves to his friend Anderson. In the middle of the night he was awakened from sleep, and soon became aware that some one was endeavoring to open the door of the room been knocked away, and that it was his brains in which himself and wife and two younger children were sleeping. There was a meeting in the afternoon for discussion but which we were unable to attend; and in the evening several letters and among them an eloquent letter from Hon. John Quincy Adams was read by Rev. Mr. Pomroy.

A Robber Taken.

The house of Mr. Wilson Godfrey at Gouldsboro was robbed on Friday last during the absence of the family and $25 and a watch taken. On the return of Mr. Godfrey he started in pursuit of the robber and traced him to this city where by the aid of Constable Walker he was secured yesterday, confessed his crime and was bound over to appear at the October term of the District Court. Annexation of Texas.

We give up a large share in our paper to day to an excellent article from the Kennebec Journal upon the subject of the annexation of Texas and the slave interests, and the manner in which the subject is treated by those who have set up a political party abstractly to oppose, but which practically prometes the slave holding interest, and may secure the annexation of Texas. The article should be read and studied by every real friend of liberty in the land.

Texas.

It admits of but little doubt that a strenuous effort will be made at the next session of Congress to bring Texas into the Union. The affairs of the Texans are in a critical position. Some great, decisive step is essential for their preservation as a distinct nation, and this step involves the continudistinct nation, and this step involves the contained distinct nation, and the contained distinct nation distinct human bondage may be preserved; but despairing in the exposed letter of Gov Gilmer, and the o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of selecting of this, the Texans, we are assured by the New slave property, "and are leaning slightly towards the abolitionists." "We have it," adds the Tropic, from an eye and ear witness, that the difficulty of keeping the negroes from escaping into Mexico, has in a great measure, reconciled the Texans to that nexed, what a dark night of slavery threatens millions of our race! But the Providence of God points in a different direction, and we yet have good hope that a far happier destiny awaits us. The pointing of his finger clearly shows that American would go to the rescue, while they permit conspirators to proceed without resistance.

We make no such accusation, for though this might relieve the Northern States from the odium of belonging to a slave-holding republic, it would rather retard than hasten the abolition of slavery, and might extend it to the Pacific Ocean. But we must confess that the charge against you of | a desire to dissolve the Union, affords the only possible good end that we can imagine, at the The Anniversary of West India Emancipa- plausible motive we can imagine for your present

No vigilgnce could stop the only means left of keeping negroes on the plantations, would be to free them and pay them as high wages as were paid in Texas. Otherwise their fields would be left desolate, and free Texas would

They are slavebreeders they raise them instead of cattle for exportation; they raise them too of all shades of color: they are not particular about the breeds: they cross them any way: some are their own children: some are begotten by a planter's son or quadroon progeny of his own father, and the mixing of blood is carried on in all sorts of relations. This natural increase is sold for the southwestern market, to be emsas, Missouri and Texas, in cultivating cotton and be difficult and expensive, so they are generally shipped from various places on the Chesapeake Bay, and the James and the Potomac rivers, and also from the rivers of North Carolina, and taken round the Cape of Florida to the Mississippi and other places on the Gulf of Mexico. CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM, NAMELY:

Scrofula, or King's Evil, rheumatism, obstinate cutaneous eruptions, pimples, or pustules on the face, blotches, biles, chronic sore eyes, ring worm or tetter, scald head, enlargement and pain of the bones and joints, stubborn ulcers, syphilitic symptoms, sciatica, or lumbago, and diseases arising from an injudicious use of the mercury, ascites, or dropsy, exposure or imprudence in dife. Also, chronic constitutional disorders will C be removed by this preparation.

The proprietors submit to the public the following certificate, from a highly respectable source, of a cure made by using their preparation of Sarsaparilla, which cannot but have the effect of placing beyond all doubt the curative powers of the medi

New York, August 3, 1842.

"Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling sense of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly relieved from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving the afflicted, make known to the world the inestimable benefit I have received from the use of your Sarsaparilla. In the year 1832 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the passage first discovered the disease which after proved to be a sore affliction; and truly I can say, which they are recommended. from the crown of my head to the sole of my fo there was no soundness in me.' From the time first mentioned down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature was capable of bearing. I have been under the care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various specifics. among others a large quantity of Swaim's Panacea, used sulphur baths, &c. As a last resort I was induced to wrap myself in a tar ointment, keep myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also shunning. I was induced to believe my case a hopeless one. In August last, by the advice of friends, I went to the New York City Hospital, but was there told that my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helplegs; the skin thickened and cracked, and blood and mutter ran, and life itself became almost a burden. A few weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly reconmended having spent nearly $3,000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time, I found myself better, and now, by using six or eight bottles, costing me less than ten dollars, I am well. Yes, I certify and declare to the world, that after spending near $3,000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffering more than can be told, I was perfectly cured by using your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparlila; and I now recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Those wishing to know further particulars will find me at my residence, No. 27 Warren street, New York, where I shall be happy to communicate any thing in relation to the above cure.

The public are respectfully requested to remember that it is Sanda's Barsaparilia that has and is constantly achieving such remarkable cures of the most difficult class of diseases to which the human frame is subject, and ask for Sands's Sarsaparille. and take no other.

NATURAL PRINCIPLES. It is written in the book of nature and common sense, that the natural vegetable productions of every country are, it properly applied, amply sufficient for the cure of every metady incident to that clime.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

are composed of plants which grow spontaneously on our own soil, and are therefore better adapted to our constitutions than medicines concocted from foreign drugs, however well they may be compounded; and as they are founded upon the principle hat the human body is in truth subject to ONLY ONE DISEASE, viz., Corrupt Humors, or in other words, Impurity, and cure every form of this one discase, on natural principles, that is, by Cleansing and Purifying the the Balm and laying it over the breast. When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to water? In like manner, if we would restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS will be found a delightful medicine for carrying out this grand purifying principle, because they expel at morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, all morbid and corrupt humors, all morbid and corrupt h at morbid and corrupt numors, the cause in class and days by the balant in the prison.

Purchasers will further remember that the counterfeiters in the hope of evading the law, have omitted the name of "Wright," and substituted some word in its place; that the medicine must have "WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS" on the sides of the boxes; and that all with the above omission are positively spurious.
